A Season Of Change

We are sad to see several of our RRF family leave us recently and with them all luck in their new endeavors. College, job changes, and life adjustment leave us with less horses, but we are embracing the change. A smaller equine headcount allows for the empty stalls to be deep cleaned, for pasture rotation which is

FaceBook

Visit River Ranch Farm Community Group for updates, items for sale, upcoming events and the like. If you don't have access to our private group, let Jen or I know.

Locker Library

There is a locker in the tack room full of amazing equestrian related titles to read! Take advantage of this great resource. We hope to have a reading club over the winter.

necessary for better management, and for some time for our workers to help with other tasks as the winter approaches. If you have some time and want to help shop-vac empty lockers, scrub feed pans, or offer a hand with any other tasks, please let Jen know. The farm has been at its maximum for so long that this quiet season is welcome!

Feeding Options

Jen or I will be reaching out to many of you, as we are adding a Senior complete feed to our feeding options to help horses that don't finish their hay, or need a more robust feed option. We will also be moving the horses that are on PrimeGlo to SeniorGlo, as they offer nearly identical nutritional support so we want to streamline feeding.

✦ Please make sure your stall card information is correct and that you have given any new blanketing instructions to Jen or I to be included on the stall card.

✦ The newsletter will now be uploaded to FaceBook as well as to our website, www.theriverranch.us

✦ Remember to have all guests sign a waiver form

✦ If you have a horse trailer at RRF, please move it before September 6th so it can be mowed around before the grass gets any longer in that area.
